Subject : BISTECH 3.0 New Phase Transition Date Announcement

To Whom It May Concern,

Reference: Announcement dated 06/06/2023 numbered 2023-17660

According to the announcement, the transition to BISTECH 3.0 new phase was previously postponed due to the requests received from our members. At this stage, the new date for the BISTECH 3.0 phase transition has been determined as Monday, August 7, 2023. Therefore, two planned member rehearsals will be conducted on Saturday, July 8, 2023, and Saturday, July 29, 2023. Additionally, on Sunday, August 6, 2023, a final connectivity test will be performed for all our members to review their connections to the new environment.

As previously announced, on Friday, August 4, 2023, which is the last trading day before the transition, there will be no Evening Session in the Futures and Options Market (VİOP). Furthermore, all Good-Till-Cancelled (GTC) and Good-Till-Date (GTD) orders in VİOP contracts that are open for trading in the System will be canceled by the Exchange at the end of the day.

It is important for all members, colocation customers, and data vendors to complete their work in consideration of the specified dates.

Kindly submitted to your information.

Yours Sincerely,

Korkmaz ERGUN
