To Whom It May Concern

In the Borsa İstanbul A.Ş. Precious Metals Market Member Representative Declaration, due to the fact that your representative (transaction authority), who is authorized to carry out transactions related to the purchase/sale of precious metals, transfers the transaction forms or code and password, even if against his/her consent, to third parties and/or authorized or unauthorized representatives employed or to be employed by your institution, both in paper or electronic media, in transactions made by himself/herself, It is hereby accepted, declared and undertaken that any and all legal and/or material liability arising from the execution of transactions, order entry, order cancellation, order modification by unauthorized or authorized persons shall jointly and severally belong to your company and your representative.

In this context, in order to ensure transaction security and to prevent incorrect order entries; it is important to take the necessary discretion to keep the usernames and passwords given by Borsa İstanbul confidential in the transactions to be made from the BISTECH Precious Metals Trading Terminal (GIW), not to disclose the usernames and passwords to unauthorised third parties, and not to save the usernames and passwords in case of logging into the GIW from the computers shared by the member representatives, otherwise legal and / or financial liability will belong to your company and your representative in accordance with the above-mentioned Declaration provision.

Kindly submitted to your information.

Yours Sincerely,

Korkmaz ERGUN
CEO and Board Member
