Borsa İstanbul Review

Call for Papers

Borsa İstanbul Review (formerly İstanbul Stock Exchange Review) is a scholarly journal publishing peer-reviewed articles in finance and economics, published by Elsevier on behalf of Borsa İstanbul. All published and forthcoming articles are freely available as open access.

<http://www.sciencedirect.com/journal/borsa-istanbul-review>

The journal provides a scholarly platform for empirical financial studies including but not limited to financial markets and institutions, financial economics, investor behavior, financial centers and market structures, corporate finance, recent economic and financial trends. Both micro and macro data applications and comparative studies are welcomed. Country coverage includes advanced, emerging and developing economies. In particular, we would like to publish empirical papers with significant policy implications and encourage submissions in the following areas:

- Investments and Portfolio Management
- Behavioral Finance
- Financial Markets and Institutions
- Market Microstructure
- Islamic Finance
- Financial Risk Management
- Valuation
- Capital Markets Governance
- Financial Regulations

Indexing and Abstracting

Borsa İstanbul Review is included and abstracted in Scopus, Emerging Sources Citation Index, Web of Science, Directory of Open Access Journals (DOAJ), EconLit (JEL on CD), RePEc: Research Papers in Economics and the World Banking Abstracts.

Review Process

All papers are subject to double blind review process. The review process takes about less than two months.
