To Whom It May Concern,

Reference: Announcement dated January 02, 2018 and numbered 2018/01

It has been observed that the interest shown in the BISTECH Phase 2+ Go-Live Rehearsals, which continue as described in the referenced Announcement, by our Members and Data Vendors is less than expected.

In order to ensure the seamless completion of the BISTECH Phase 2+ Go-Live, it is of utmost importance that all stakeholders participate in each and every Rehearsal cycle.

As announced, the Saturdays in the end of the beginning week of each Rehearsal cycle have been set as trading day for all four markets, while Sundays have been set as trading day for PMD only. In order to maximize the effectiveness of the Rehearsal environments; stakeholders should state the Saturdays, on which they plan to participate in the Rehearsals, by filling out the below table. The Saturday, for which no demand is conveyed, shall be set as holiday for all markets except PMD, in order to provide the means to conduct testing in a production-like environment. In case that there is demand for all Saturdays shown in the below table, one of those Saturdays may be chosen by Borsa Istanbul and may be declared as holiday for all markets except PMD.

Therefore, Members, Data Vendors and ISVs are expected to send their preferences of Saturdays, on which they plan to participate in the Rehearsals, together with the reference code PROVA-CMT and together with the participant names as shown below, with an e-mail to miy@borsaistanbul.com.
